Housing Authority rescinds rent hike

TRYING IT OUT before passing approval, Mrs. Sue Bailey checked out the fit of County Commissioner Bill Bailey's seat in the new suite of offices Bailey and his staff officially opened last week in the county Glades Office Building. The Bailey's, flanked by Administrative Assistant David Goodlett and secretary Pat Smith, held an open house last Thursday.

BELLE GLADE—An across the board $2 per week rent increase for tenants of Osceola and Okeechobee Housing Centers made Oct. 15 was rescinded last week by the Belle Glade Housing Authority after finding a technical error in the increase procedure.

Authority Executive Director James Humphrey said Wednesday procedures in how the Authority can increase rent were changed last year and the Authority hadn't received a copy of the amended procedures.

Humphrey said the primary change made was that tenants had to be notified at least two weeks in advance before the change and they must now be given 30 day's notice.

He labeled inaccurate statements made in a press release by Florida Rural Legal Services (FRLS) he, "conceded that the rent increase was illegal because federal regulations...had not been followed," and that the increase was rescinded only in the face of a threatened lawsuit by FRLS.

"I never conceded the rate increase was illegal," Humphrey said. "We failed to follow the procedures by two weeks. That's all." He also noted that the Authority Board of Trustees voted on Tuesday, Dec. 19 to rescind the rent increase and notice of the lawsuit was received by the Authority attorney on Dec. 20 and the notice wasn't received in the Authority office until Dec. 22.

"During the September board meeting," he said, "the new budget with the rate increase, was passed by the board. Notices were hand delivered to the tenants, in two languages, informing them the rent would be increased by $2 on Oct. 15.

"As of Oct. 15," he said, "there had been no protest and we implemented the rate increase. Several weeks later, Mr. Katherine Grannis, a law clerk at Florida Rural Legal Services, came by my office and asked me if I knew we hadn't followed the correct procedure in raising the rates and I said, 'No, I didn't'."

Humphrey said he contacted Jim Honer, chief of rural housing with the Farmer's Home Administration (FmHA) in Gainesville and was told that he had, indeed, used outdated procedures.

He said he was given a set of the revised procedures in October in West Palm Beach during a meeting both he and Honer attended. He said Honer suggested the Authority rescind the increase and begin anew the procedure for raising the rates as well as amending the Authority budget.

"That was done in the Dec. 19 meeting," he said, "and we're now in the process of amending the budget and requesting the rate increase."

In the meantime, the tenants were notified on Dec. 22 that the increase had been rescinded and they would be credited for $2 each week until the increase had been completely refunded.

Should any of the tenants move from either of the two centers before they receive full credit, Humphrey said they would receive cash refunds.

He said the Authority has lost almost $10,000 because of the rescinded increase and the refunds to the 593 tenants and he said the increase which is now being requested will probably be more than the $2 per week increase voted in September.

"Of the $2 increase," he said, "I'm going to pay for an increase in water and sewer rates we're being charged by the City of Belle Glade."

He said the rental rate was raised in 1977 and, while he wasn't sure how long it had been before that there had been an increase

Doctors reject Clarke as administrator

BELLE GLADE—Glades General Hospital attending physicians and medical staff announced Wednesday morning that Lee Ben Clarke, Hospital Administrator is no longer accepted by them as the Administrator.

"We call for the resignation of Ben Clarke," said Dr. Luis Guerrero, staff physician and president of the Palm Beach County Medical Society.

As of today, Glades General Hospital no longer has an administrator, Guerrero added.

In a special meeting held at the Hospital last week with all of the medical staff present, it was agreed to go on record unanimously supporting a new administration for the hospital, and asked Dr. J. Allen Baker, Chief of Medical staff to petition Dr. Guerrero, and the Palm Beach County Medical Society to assist the medical staff in solving this "intolerable situation."

The calling for Clarke's resignation came as a result of pressure from medical personnel who appeared before the Southwest Palm Beach County Hospital board, Tuesday, Dec. 19, speaking of their dissatisfaction and "filthy condition of the hospital."

At that time the board declined to take any action, and Board Vice-Chairman Raymond Caruthers said the hospital's problems would take time to be worked out and would be worked out.

Guerrero said the Medical Society's main goal is "patient care," and presently, Glades General Hospital is, "not doing a very adequate job."

Quoting from the Medical Society's manual, article three,

Guerrero said the "Members shall practice only in hospitals that are approved by the society, hospital staff and members; and are subject to annual review of approval."

The mechanics for this review shall be determined by the executive board.

The Medical Society is scheduled to meet Jan. 3 and at that time is expected to act on the attending physicians and medical personnel resolution.

As a taxpayer and attending physician he has questions that need to be answered.

"The number of patients admitted to the hospital has been declining over the years. Patients refuse to be admitted and they go someplace else. It's up to community to ask why," Dr. Guerrero said.

"The morale is at the lowest point," he added.

The doctors also criticized for cutting back on medical personnel, without consulting the board, at a time when six highly paid assistants and 10 business clerks were employed.

That cut took place when the facility's population was increased and the hospital was operating with a reduced staff.

"If there are economical problems why isn't there less personnel in the office," Guerrero said.

"Why was $10,000 spent to have a Fort Lauderdale firm tell the hospital what its problems are when the staff could have done so?"

Also why was dilapidated pills ordered and who authorized the order

when the attending physicians stop prescribing that drug over a year ago, Guerrero asked.

Glades General Hospital Board of Trustees Vice-Chairman Ray Caruthers said Wednesday he hopes to have written answers to a number of complaints on the hospital's operation by the Jan. 16, regular meeting.

The complaints were made during the board's regular meeting last week, when some two dozen members of the hospital and medical staff complained recent budget cuts have adversely affected patient care and cleanliness at the hospital.

The doctors and nurses specifically asked the board to fire Lee Ben Clarke, administrator at the local hospital and Caruthers said Clarke had been instructed to supply the trustees with written answers to each of the allegations, charges and complaints.

He said Clarke had also been directed to attempt to re-open lines of communications to the hospital and medical staffs which had apparently been allowed to close.

"We want members of the hospital and medical staffs to be informed of what happens at the board meetings," Caruthers said, "and maybe in this way we can put aside some differences, for the time being anyway, and work together."

This doesn't mean we'll be

'78, the year that was

BELLE GLADE—1978 started out right when a six-year-old dream became a reality with the opening of the New Palm Beach Junior College. Registration began for the winter term in the new campus building on SR 715.

Glades campus Executive Vice-President Cecil Conley said he expected approximately 500 students to begin classes Monday.

Jan. 12 A truck driver's strike at the Sugar Cane Growers Cooperative of Florida Inc. sugar mill, which erupted into violence that Monday and Tuesday, ended officially at 10 p.m. Tuesday and all the workers were reported back on the job Wednesday morning.

Jan. 19 The Solid Waste plan took a giant step when the State Cabinet agreed to lease a 26-acre plot of land adjacent to the Belle Glade sanitary land-fill to the Palm Beach County Solid Waste Authority.

Jan. 26 Glades Central set a new school win streak record for consecutive basketball games won when the romped over Atlantic and Jupiter High Schools in preparation for their confrontation with North Shore.

Feb. 2 The GCI Newspaper won four awards in a National Contest presented to a monthly newspaper published at Glades Correctional Institution during competition of the 13th Annual American Penal Press Contest.

The awards, a second place in the National story competition and honorable mentions in the feature story, news story and editorial categories. All the articles were written by Do You Know Editor Robert R. Casterline.

Feb. 9 The new City Hall was open for business Monday and a formal ribbon cutting ceremony on Friday formally dedicated the new facility, with members of the public invited for the open house.

Feb. 16 The newly opened Palm Beach Junior College Glades Campus building had a ribbon cutting ceremony with some 100 people attending who toured the building and had refreshments.

Feb. 13 The Belle Glade Rotarians celebrated their 42nd year as an organization with the clubs historians, John Dulany and Ralph Kidder, recalling events over the years.

March 2 FmHA refused to finance Glades Solid Waste Disposal Facility to handle all the garbage and trash in Western Palm Beach County. The facility received a blow when the U.S. Farmers Home Administration refused to finance Opened the mail the other day...do that once a week whether it's justified or not...and discovered a letter from a local fellow who asked that it not be published.

But enclosed in the letter was a clipping from "Christian News," which was in turn reprinted from National Review. And since it's mighty good, and I lack any New Years Resolutions to pass along since I don't keep 'em anyway, thought we would reprint it here. It follows:

WELFARE REFORM, FAMILY BREAKUPS...

...Work Incentives and Other Policy Questions Too Horrible to Contemplate: A ten-year study of low income families and families on welfare has begun to yield its harvest of statistics, and the first notable conclusion is TILT. Senator Moynihan, puzzling over the figures, has admitted that he's going to have to rethink some of his ideas on reform. He has argued, in the past, and with notable eloquence, that the current mess of welfare programs doesn't really help the poor, actually contributes to family breakups, and costs too much. He has supposed that a system of direct payments, such as the "negative income tax" espoused by Milton Friedman, would help to keep families together. But the study of some 8,500 families finds just the opposite: families receiving income support had a 60 percent higher rate of separation and divorce than the "control group."

And then there are the ethnic considerations. The rate of family breakup was about the same for black and whites, but half as much as among Hispanics. And the "work ethic" seems particularly strong among whites. The study looked into "work disincentives" keyed to varying rates of reduced welfare payments as earned income rises, and it turns out that the goofing-off rate among Hispanics and black is twice the rate among whites.

The disincentive is quantified for the first time: if you "tax" a man at 70 percent—i.e., reduce his welfare payment by 70 cents for each dollar he earns—he'll work 10.6 percent fewer hours than otherwise; when the "tax" drops to 50 percent, he'll work 6.2 percent fewer hours.

The study cost $112 million. For another hundred million they might have discovered that if you pay people for not working, they'll not work.

NEWS OF SAFETY

Snow Thrower Safety

Give trouble a cold shower this winter when you're using your push-type snow thrower. Here are some hints from the experts at the Outdoor Power-Equipment Institute for making winter yardwork easy—and safe.

ALWAYS MAKE SURE THE machine's guards and shields are in place.

1. Put your owner's manual at the top of your must-read list. Relearn your machine's functions before you even turn it on.

2. Adjust the height when you're clearing gravel or crushed rock surfaces.

3. Always make sure your guards or shields are in place. If your machine hasn't been checked out by an expert this year, make sure you make an appointment with your dealer at the end of the season.

4. Remember: the machine's no toy. Never discharge snow at anyone—a hidden rock or wood could injure a passerby.

If you follow this advice, your snow thrower won't throw you for a loop.

Some used to say piercing a lime causes love pangs in one's beloved.

Stupid and unfair

When Governor-elect Bob Graham begins his study on tax reform, always assuming he fulfills his campaign promises, one of the first areas which could be studied is cigarette taxes.

When the four percent state sales tax is added to cigarettes, Florida's 21 cents per pack excise tax is the highest state tax in the country, making the price of taxes on a pack of butts 119 percent of the 27 cents per pack the price would be with no taxes. The 119 percent figure includes the eight cents per pack federal excise tax.

Any time the taxes on any article exceeds the value of the article itself, that would have to be considered discriminatory taxation.

But if the state legislature doesn't seem to care if it passes unfair tax bills, and liquor is taxed just as unreasonably, it should take a close look at other side effects.

Side effects such as the fact this unreasonable tax has passed the point of diminishing returns, an economic law the lawmakers don't seem to understand.

The latest figures indicate the state has lost more than $100 million in unpaid cigarette taxes because too many people, including organized crime bosses, feel the potential profit in selling bootleg cigarettes is worth the risk of being caught breaking the law.

The figures forced the Florida House of Representatives' Select Committee on Organized Crime to come to the conclusion that before the end of the year, Florida would have come close, or reached the point set last year when for every dollar in cigarette taxes going into the state coffers, more than a dollar was going into the treasury of organized crime.

And the unsuccessful effort the state is making to shut off bootlegging is eating further into the dollar made by the state in cigarette taxes.

Sure it's unfair taxation but under this kind of condition, the state cigarette tax is more than unfair. It's stupid.

It's stupid because the state is actually losing revenue by pricing itself out of business.

It's stupid because the state is spending more money trying to dam the flow of untaxed cigarettes into the state.

It's stupid because the unfair tax is actually strengthening organized crime in Florida, the very reason the governor and a number of legislators who worked to increase the tax last year were opposed to casino gambling this year.

Worst of all, it's stupid because that kind of tax turns too many average citizens into criminals. And who's to say a person is wrong to break a law when that law is illegitimate?

The stupidity of the law could be corrected if two recommendations of the Select Committee on Organized Crime are adopted by the legislator: "To counteract the tremendous cigarette bootlegging problem and to cut down on organized crime profits, the Committee recommends a two-step reduction on the cigarette tax to 15 cents per pack" and, "The Committee supports federal legislation to equalize taxes among all of the states."

That's a good place to start the state's tax reform and, considering the state actually has a surplus in the treasury now, this would be a good time to start that reform.

Give it to US

The Rev. Jim Jones seems bent on proving the truth of Mark Antony's comment that the evil men do live after them while the good is oft interred in their grave.

It wasn't enough for the charlatan to pick the pockets of the faithful for 20 years. Some people say there oughta be a law but how do you protect the gullible from their own religious fanaticism? One of the great things about this country is that people have a right to choose their own brand of religion...or cultism, depending on the point of view.

It wasn't enough for the Rev. Jones to lead his foolishly faithful out of California to a Guyanian Zion where he could rule over his own version of a jungle Garden of Eden.

It wasn't enough that the Rev. Jones could deposit all the money he'd bilked from the believers in Swiss banks.

It wasn't enough he could swindle most of the cultists into thinking they'd find their passport to paradise through an orgy of suicide and murder reminiscent of Japanese soldiers dying for their emperor in a banzai charge.

It wasn't enough for the United States government to pull the dead leader's chestnuts out of a fire by spending $9 million and a lot of effort by soldiers who bagged, tagged and shipped the bodies back to America.

Now we find the good reverend's last wishes was to donate most, if not all, of the money in those Swiss accounts to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, thumbing his nose at the country which gave him the religious freedom to practice his hokery in favor of a country on record as saying religion is nothing but the opiate of the masses.

And that's where his pathetic little journey ought to end. If there's any justice in the world, there should be no problem whatsoever in how to dispose of the millions he stashed away.

It ought to be used to pay the freight for the government's disposal of Jones' victims. If his son, or whoever the head of the church now is, has even a modicum of a sense of responsibility, the money will be given freely.

If there is no sense of responsibility on the church's part, the government ought to feel some sense of responsibility to the taxpayers and slap a lien on the bank accounts and recover the funds until the cost of the project is paid off or the bank accounts run out.

CRACKER CRUMBS

BY DEAN JONES

I love Christmas...and if you think this is a week late to be making that observation, maybe I'd better explain a bit further.

Actually, Christmas itself I can take or leave...and sometimes I'd as lief leave it. The day after we get the Christmas issue out is what I love.

It feels so good to collapse and talk to my poor, aching head after commiserating with the ever-faithful Green Machine. Well, it's about as faithful as any beast of burden can be when it's asked to carry a load most pick-ups would balk at.

Poor baby! No car should be asked to take on just under a ton of newspapers and other assorted cargo...with the bulk of the bulk on and behind the rear axle.

The Christmas issue of the Herald for those who don't notice, is traditionally larger than the regular issues and the one last week was 42 pages split into five sections.

That may not be a Sunday New York Times but it's bigger than a lot of small dailies and just getting it printed and assembled, we call it stuffing and sometimes we call it cramming and other times we call it things that just aren't said in a family newspaper is a major job for a weekly newspaper.

Something like being given a whisk broom along with the orders to clean out the Augean stables. Come to think of it, that ain't a bad analogy considering the amount of ink and dirt collected during the stuffing.

And like I pointed out while we were working on it, I've had writers cramp before but that's the first time I ever got stuffers cramp.

I know why some of the girls who'd already stuffed The Calypso Belle and the Clewiston News were ready to call in sick or go home sick. They probably were sick.

Sick and tired of stuffing those endless sections, if nothing else.

Then came the delivery of the papers to the news stands and racks all over Belle Glade and South Bay...12 hours after we'd started working that morning and without so much as a lunch break thrown in for relief.

The Green Machine complained all the way and those weren't visions of sugar plums dancing in my head. I was crossing every finger and the toes that had room in my shoes that the two-eyed-would-tires would hold up.

Those rear tires, by the way, had about the same cross section at the bottom, where they meet the road, as a pair of hollow pancakes that didn't know they were supposed to rise.

But the price of the tires wasn't the only reason I was dreading a blowout. (I wasn't worried about a flat because the tires were already flat.) I would've had to move about three quarters of a ton of newspapers just to get to the spare tire and jack.

Besides, I'm not at all sure that jack would've held the car long enough to switch tires. Come to think of it, I'm not at all sure about the bumper either.

But the tires did hold and the axle didn't decide to collapse either so we got another Christmas issue delivered despite ourselves and let roughly the 12th consecutive year I reflected Thanksgiving really oughta be celebrated on Dec. 28 instead of on a Thursday in November.

At least that's the case so far as retail stores and newspaper outlets are concerned.

Oh year, four of those 12 years I'm talking about took place while I was in college, working my way through in various discount-fung stores that could easily be the modern day equivalent of the old-time general store...only more complete.

Matter of fact, I can recall the time when a fellow came into a store where I was working, after having passed lawn mowers, tractors, fertilizer, lawn furniture and an assortment of other summertime goodies out on the sidewalk, and asked me if I knew where he could find a drug store.

We had some of the merchandise inside after that but it didn't last any longer than some of the other reforms did.

Come to think of it, it probably didn't last as long as the Christmas issue stayed on the news table. Last week before it was put in the newspaper's real job of lining the bird cage and clothing fresh mail and collard greens.

New production methods are needed for agriculture

GAINESVILLE — Florida's multi-billion-dollar-a-year agriculture is losing a battle to soaring energy costs and will fall from the ranks of leading agricultural states unless new production methods are found by the mid-1980's.

That is the prediction of University of Florida's Vice-President for Agricultural Affairs, Dr. K.R. Teffertiller, who said Monday that increased state funding is needed to enhance research and education programs aimed at making the state's agriculture more energy efficient.

"Florida agriculture uses far more energy per acre than any other state. If our agriculture is to survive we must develop a new low-energy technology and do it quickly," said Teffertiller, head of the University's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences (IFAS).

He explained that due to its many subtropical pests and infertile soils Florida ranks number one in the nation in the use of pesticides and second or third in the use of fertilizer per acre. "Consequently, energy price increase hits Florida farmers much harder than farmers in other areas," he said.

Teffertiller said funding increases are needed in the IFAS budget to provide researchers and teachers more support including new scientific equipment, non-academic support labor and operating expenses to realize a major redirection.

Critical redirection areas include plant and animal improvement through genetics, use of biological rather than chemical pest and disease controls, biological production of nitrogen fertilizer, application of solar energy, biomass energy conversion techniques and technical adjustments in food processing and transportation.

"We are going to need a whole new production system. Florida's agricultural technology is based on cheap energy and everyday it becomes more obsolete," he said.

He said he is asking legislators for a 15% increase per year for the next two years over the existing IFAS budget of $45.3 million a year. He said such an increase—totaling about $14 million—would allow for price increases due to inflation, increased workload expenses, plus quality improvement of existing programs to support the state's agricultural industry.

"The food industry in Florida generates over $11 billion-a-year and provides jobs to about one out of every four workers. It is a mainstay of our economy and we must provide the technological support needed to keep it competitive with other states and other nations," he said.

IFAS is the state-wide agricultural branch of the university system. It has 22 regional research centers, Extension offices in all 67 counties and provides full-time resident instruction to about 2,000 students.

Raiders surprise crowd, make finals in tourney

BELLE GLADE—The Glades Central basketball team, which no one expected to go far in the Palm Beach Times Christmas tournament, surprised a number of people by making it to the championship game before succumbing to the team's nemesis, North Shore, by six points.

The loss was the team's first since the regular season's opener against Martin County and Coach Jay Seider credited teamwork with the reason Belle Glade beat out five other tournament teams which are ranked in the state.

On the way to the finals, the Raiders beat out Deerfield Beach, 70-50, Pahokee, 66-63, and Twin Lakes, which had been previously undefeated, 82-50. The Mustangs won the championship match with a 57-51 score.

"We did real well in the first half (against North Shore)," Seider said. "The score was 28-24 and we were just down four points but we came out in the third quarter and they outscored us 14-4. We just couldn't make shots go in and they were playing pretty good defense."

The Raiders came back in the fourth quarter but couldn't overcome that third quarter deficit, even after beating the Mustangs, 23-15 in the final period. Seider said another reason the Raiders didn't do as well in the second half as in the first was that ace player Arthur Slater was out of action virtually the entire second half after fouling out early in the third period.

"I've got to give the kids a lot of credit," Seider said. "They were tired after playing four games in a row and three of the games were against really tough competition."

He said that of the 16 teams in the tournament, six were ranked in the state before play began.

Individually, Tim Hobbs led the Raiders in scoring with 15 points and four rebounds, followed by Todd Darville with 13 points and 13 rebounds, Slater with 10 points and three rebounds.

Other scorers were Michael Collier with seven points and one rebound (the same score he made in every game in the tournament), Eugene Wells with four points and three rebounds, Ricky Graham with two points and four rebounds and Robert Clark with one point and two rebounds.

In the first game of the tournament, the Raiders walloped Deerfield Beach, 70-50, outmanning and outgunning the Class AAAA team.

"We had a pretty good offensive game," Seider said, "against them and a pretty good defensive game too. It gave everybody a chance to play and 10 of the 13 players scored."

Three of the players scored more than 10 points, with Arthur Slater leading the way with 15 points and 10 rebounds, followed by Hobbs with 11 points and three rebounds and Eugene Wells with 10 points and six rebounds.

Todd Darville scored nine points and eight rebounds, Collier scored his seven points and a rebound, Sam Anderson made six points and six rebounds, Ricky Graham made four points and five rebounds, Barry Adley made four points and one rebound, Victor Trice made two points and Altree Jackson made two.

In the Pahokee game, which the Raiders won 66-63, Seider said the Raiders had a good defensive game, although he thought there should have been more than a three point spread at the end of the game.

"We couldn't seem to make our free throws at the end," he said. "That's how they got close to us. They forced us to make mistakes too."

He said Slater once again led the scoring with 24 points and 14 rebounds, followed by Darville with 14 points and 11 rebounds and Wells' 13 points and one rebound.

Other scorers were Collier with his seven points and one rebound, Hobbs with four points and two rebounds, Graham with two points and six rebounds and Altree Jackson with two points and one rebound.

In the semi-final game, the Raiders edged out previously undefeated Twin Lakes, 59-50. "We played a real good half and came out of it with a seven point lead," Seider said, "but they whittled it down in the second half and took a four point lead at one point with two minutes to go."

"Graham came in right at the end," he said, "and blocked one of their shots, then turned around and gave it to Mike Collier, who scored."

The two-point deficit was made up when the ball was stolen and Slater tied the score on a layup. After that, the Raiders slowed down the game until Hobbs put them in the lead on a 28 foot shot with eight seconds left in the game. Seider, praising Hobbs' effort, said he shot 59 percent for the game.

Slater led the Raider scoring effort again with 19 points and six rebounds and Hobbs made 14 points and three rebounds. They were followed by Darville with nine points and 11 rebounds, Collier's seven points and one rebound and Wells' three points and two rebounds.

"We've been playing real well as a team," Seider said of the Raiders. "The kids have been trying to play ball control and sometimes they've even gotten too cautious and carried the team play too far by passing up shots they should have taken. We're not playing the running game we played last year because we don't have the firepower."

He said an indication of the teamwork is that no one or two players are making all the plays, that most of the players are scoring about the same number of points in games.

Even so, Slater was named to the tournament team by judges after it was all over last Thursday night.

In one other game which hadn't been reported, the Raiders breezed past Fort Pierce Westwood, 92-83 on Dec. 15.

"This was probably our best offensive game," Seider said, "but defensively we didn't do as well as I would've liked. We shot well, hitting about 62 percent."

Slater led the scoring again, making 22 points and nine rebounds, followed by Michael Collier with 19 points and five assists, by Wells with 13 points and nine rebounds, Robert Clark with 12 points and six rebounds, and Hobbs with 12 points and five rebounds.

Other scorers were Darville with nine points and seven rebounds, Victor Trice with two points and one rebound and Altree Jackson with two points.

The Raiders next face Pahokee at Pahokee on Jan. 2.

Glades Day Gators have opening jitters

BELLE GLADE—The Glades Day Gators basketball team had a bad case of the first game jitters Friday night and fell to John Carroll 76-48.

Coach Dick Schmidt said John Scruggs was high point man for the hometown team with 16 and eight rebounds but a combination of big men and excellent shooting from the floor helped Carroll to the win.

Three of Carroll's front five are near six and a half feet tall, said Schmidt, and one of these is six nine.

In junior varsity action, the baby Gators scrapped by 57-55 with Dan Ross high point man with 19 followed by Tommy Swager with 18. Though outscored 12-4 in the first quarter, the team overcame the deficit in the second and pulled ahead just before the end of the game.

Pringle leads Armstrong

SAVANNAH, GA—Expected to be used primarily for his defensive abilities, former Glades Central basketball player Michael Pringle is leading the Armstrong State College so far in the season with a 22.3 point per game average.

After seven games, the "Running Pirates" have won six and lost one and the team has averaged more than a hundred points per game, according to Coach George Bianchi.

Pringle graduated from Glades Central three years ago and is now in his junior year at Armstrong State, having transferred from Florida College.

Taking it from the Top

By David T. Evans
Pastor of Everglades Presbyterian Church

Christmas is past and we are taking down the Christmas trees and cleaning out the manger scenes. We have been to exchange the gifts that were too small or too large. New Years Eve and the New Year is facing us.

We generally make resolutions for the coming year. Of course the resolutions disappear faster than snow in Florida but we make them anyway. There is something about the new year that brings out the desire to start afresh. Hence, the new year's resolutions.

The Apostle Paul in his letter to the Philippians says, "forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead." This is good advice for all of us.

Forgetting what we have done or said is wise. We can't undo what we have done or said. This doesn't mean we aren't to benefit by our mistakes. All of us can certainly profit by overcoming our errors. Paul doesn't want us to dwell on our wrongs and get depressed. Formulate a new way to do things and improve your life. Put the old way behind you and go ahead. Ask forgiveness and move forward.

Then Paul says press forward. Every day is a new day and as someone has said it is the beginning of the rest of your life. God forgives without limit enabling us to have a fresh start. The new year is a good time for new beginnings.

The key to another chance is in Jesus Christ and the forgiveness he has brought to us. Let's not forget the new life that comes in Jesus the Christ-Child. He came into the world to save us from the selfishness of ourselves and thereby give us life and it in abundance.

In the next verse gives us the reason for moving ahead. "I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. We can turn over a new leaf. We can receive forgiveness but the life which lies ahead is most important.

The upward call is to a new life. This new life is in Christ. It is grand and glorious but it is also day in and day out affair—very regular. The joy of the high religious experiences fades very fast under the stress and strain of every day living. God has provided for that by sending us His Holy Spirit.

Take hold of the Holy Spirit and Let Him guide you to prayer, to remembrance of God's blessings, to strength to live in this pressure filled society and courage to keep your resolutions. Try it and see if life doesn't go better with our Triune God. Happy New Year!

METRONE... Pulsebeat for Music.

CHURCH... Pulsebeat for your New Year's Resolutions.

Beginners in music study have to have help in timing their practice.

The Metronome is a reminder to stay on the right beat.

The Church is the means through which God pronounces his word. God's word sets up the highest ideals for man to live by. Therefore there is no better ground to base your New Year Resolutions on, than those set up by our Lord.

"Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Legion Auxiliary donates toys

BELLE GLADE—The American Legion Junior Auxiliary were on hand at the Glades Correctional Institution December 20 to donate toys for needy children of the inmates. The GCI Jaycee's were to wrap and pass out these presents Monday to the children. Quaker Oats contributed many new toys to the Junior Auxiliary for this project. Robert Reece, head of the Jaycees at GCI was on hand to oversee the exchange. The GCI Jaycees said that they had approximately 500 toys, so far, to be distributed. This has been an annual event for the last two years. Reece said it took three days to distribute the toys last year, but due to the small amount of toys donated this year, it will only take one day to pass out the gifts. Next year remember to save you old or mended toys for this cause.

May Fortune smile on you and yours in the coming year.

Horticultural seminar is set

BELLE GLADE—Shrubs and hedges will be the topic for a seminar at 2:30 p.m. Friday, Jan. 5 at the Palm Beach County Office Building north of town. Gene Joyner, the urban horticulturist working with the County Cooperative Extension Service, will be addressing anyone interested in his monthly horticultural seminar.

"Many South Florida residents are faced with many hundreds of beautiful shrubs to place in their landscape," Joyner said, "either for flowers or for use as hedges or screens and these people often do not know which plants are the best for their particular situations."

He said the purpose of the Jan. 5 seminar will be to assist residents in identifying and selecting the right shrub or hedge for their home landscape.

In addition to slides he will be using, Joyner will have many informative pamphlets on various shrubs and hedges on hand for free distribution he said.

For an hour and a half before the seminar begins, Joyner will also be holding a plant clinic to answer questions about any problems Glades residents are having with the greenery around their homes.

The plant clinic is unstructured and, if someone who can't get to the office has a question, they can call Joyner at 996-4800 extension 33.

Lions hold successful auction for children, retarded citizens

BELLE GLADE—The annual auction of the Belle Glade Lions was held last Wednesday at the Civic Center.

Bert and Charles Ward (Committee Chairman) set up and ran the auction. A set of golf balls were auctioned off for $100 to George Royal, a visitor to the Lions. An orchid plant donated by Milton Carpenter went for a mere $130.

The Lions ended up raising between $1,800 and $2,000. Half will be donated to the Childrens Home Society and half to the Association of Retarded Citizens.

The Lions would like to thank all of the merchants that donated merchandise to be auctioned off.

Mrs. Lucy Emerson, with the Miami Herald, attended as a guest and was presented with a resolution recommending her efforts in upgrading the quality of education of the Palm Beach County school system in the Glades area.

State Farm Bureau headquarters expands

GAINESVILLE—Florida Farm Bureau Federation, the state's largest farmer organization, has announced a $4.5 million building expansion to their state headquarters building in Gainesville.

"We are anticipating to more than double our present size of 92,000 square feet," said Walter J. Kautz president of the 80,000 member-family association.

Kautz said Farm Bureau moved to its present building off 175 and Williston road in 1973. Since then, their employee size has doubled.

and Farm Bureau expects their number of employees to double again in the next five years. That will make Farm Bureau one of the largest non-governmental employers in the Gainesville area.

Kautz credits expanded services to members for Farm Bureau's growth.

"Our life insurance company has $400 million insurance in force in the state and we are now the 7th largest fire and casualty insurance writer in the state," he said.

Florida Farm Bureau moved to Gainesville in 1956 from Winter

Park. Chamber of Commerce looking for new out-of-town members

BELLE GLADE-Reminders to members who haven't paid their dues and letters to non-members, including businesses in the West Palm Beach area, are being mailed by the Chamber of Commerce in an effort to build membership to an all-time high.

Executive Secretary Jewel Hart said the number of out-of-town members is growing, with Jefferson being one of the latest in a growing list of ten to 15 out-of-town members.

"We're offering small businesses rates to all out-of-town businesses," Mrs. Hart said. "A lot of people from the Glades shop in West Palm Beach and sometimes the large-city merchants have a better idea of all the Chamber can do for them."

She said the Chamber is soliciting memberships from every business where Glades area residents shop, those who select persons in the Glades area and those who advertise in the Glades.

"We don't get responses from everyone we contact," she said, "but until recently, we weren't contacting any of them and none of them were shop, those who select persons in the Glades area and those who advertise in the Glades."

"We don't get responses from everyone we contact," she said, "but until recently, we weren't contacting any of them and none of them were shop, those who select persons in the Glades area and those who advertise in the Glades."

The Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce was organized with two goals in mind," Mrs. Hart said. "To make this area one of the better, safer and more attractive places for our citizens to live and work, and to promote the existing business and residential areas so that the new residents moving to our area will find us a receptive community in which to settle and set up a prosperous business."

Mrs. Hart said all the Chamber's activities have grown out of those two goals, and she noted there are a number of activities for people in the city realize the Chamber is involved in.

In an effort to further those two goals, the Chamber sponsors a number of committees, including: The Canal Hazards Safety Committee, which has taken on the primary goal of four-laning SR 80 from South Bay to West Palm Beach and secondary goals concerning safety on all Glades area highways. Members from as far as Pahokee and Clewiston, have been working together for several years on the project.

The Chamber officially supports recreation for area residents and visitors and sponsors the annual Belle Glade Regatta and Boat Races and the Christmas Decorating Contest. Plans are now being laid to sponsor a two-day series of go kart races in February.

In the same vein, the Chamber also acts as a catalyst for information on the Winter Vegetable Spence Whitlock.

Shooting disrupts Christmas holiday

One man was killed and another suffered a gunshot wound in the hand when a pistol discharged when it was dropped early Sunday morning in front of Crayton's Start and Tackle Shop, 101 Canal Street North, Canal Point.

Sheriff's Detective Kenneth Welby said Bobby Alderman, 29, of 1633 N.E. Ave. 1, in Belle Glade died minutes after a .357 magnum entered his lower left abdomen and lodged in his right chest. Michael Maxson, 33, an employee of U.S. Sugar, Inc., at Bryant, was shot through the hand as the gun went off.

Both men were taken to Everglades Memorial Hospital, where Monk was pronounced dead. Maxson was transferred to Good Samaritan Hospital in West Palm Beach.

Welby said Maxson was apparently showing the gun to Monk at about 3:45 a.m. Sunday when the incident occurred. Maxson dropped the gun and it misfired as he went to pick it up, shooting through Maxson's right hand and into Monk's right hand.

No charges have been filed as of yet, pending further investigation.

but he knew there wasn't one in 1976 and he didn't believe there had been one in 1976.

Humphrey also pointed out that the Authority receives no subsidy from anyone and that lost revenue, such as the nearly $13,000 given repaid, can only be made up in a loss of services to the tenants.

He said the Authority's right to raise rent is now controlled by the FmHA, but the Authority had made a loan to make capital improvements several years ago and the bond issue is still being repaid.

Humphrey said he knows of no other objections than by the 11 tenants listed in a letter from FRLS attorney Jacob Rosen. He went on to say he expects notice of a rent increase to be distributed before the first of the year.

Rose, according to a secretary at FmHA, will not be in his office until Friday and was unavailable for comment.

Happy New Year

CELEBRATE THE COMING YEAR WITH THE FINEST BEEF.

For years we've been proud of the high quality and value of our W-D Brand Beef, and we're not about to compromise a lot of quality for a little difference in price. U.S. Choice Beef, naturally aged and expertly trimmed is the only beef good enough to be W-D Brand. That's why we're known as THE BEEF PEOPLE, and probably always will be.

Legal notice to families who lived in public housing

LEGAL NOTICE TO FAMILIES WHO LIVED IN PUBLIC HOUSING PROJECTS OPERATED BY THE PAHOKEE HOUSING AUTHORITY, INC., OR LIVED IN PUBLIC HOUSING PROJECTS IN ANY OTHER CITY BETWEEN MARCH 16, 1971-SEPTEMBER 26, 1975.

If you rented a house or apartment from the Pahokee Housing Authority, Inc. or any other Public Housing Agency (PHA) during the period between March 16, 1971, and September 26, 1975, you may be eligible to file a claim for a refund of part of your rent during that period if:

1. The wife or husband of the head of the household was present and dependent upon the head of the household for support and/or;
 2. A dependent member of your family household was employed.
- If you believe your family falls within one of the categories described above, you may wish to continue reading this Notice in order to determine how and under what circumstances you may file a claim.

On July 7, 1978, the District Court of the District of Columbia entered a Stipulated Order providing that the definition of family income for purposes of computing maximum rentals for public housing, as contained in HUD Circular, which excluded spouses from the $300 deduction for each dependent and excluded dependents from the $300 deduction for each secondary wage earner, was invalid and violated the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended. The effect of this determination is that certain families who lived in public housing during the period from March 16, 1971, to September 26, 1975, may have been charged too much rent. Therefore, the District Court ordered HUD to establish a one million dollar fund for the payment of claims which current or former tenants of public housing may submit for a refund of any over-payments.

The District Court's Stipulated Order provides that, if valid claims exceed one million dollars, HUD has the option of having the Order dissolved in which case NTO and HUD may negotiate a modified settlement or proceed with further litigation. Thus, claimants should realize that the submittal of a claim determined valid by a PHA may result in full, partial, or no payment, depending on the total amount of valid claims submitted to HUD, or the final outcome of any further litigation. Any person wishing to receive a copy of the Stipulated Order or a claim form may do so by making their request known to a local PHA.

Individuals wishing to submit a claim must fill in the claim form made a part of this Notice and must submit it to the Public Housing Agency's address indicated on the claim form, or such other appropriate Public Housing Agency if different from the address indicated, within 120 days from December 7, 1978. No claims will be accepted after the end of the 120 day period, April 6, 1979.

Information provided by the claimant on the claim form must be specific as to the time period between March 16, 1971, and September 26, 1975, for which the wife or husband of the head of the household was present and was a dependent and/or a dependent in the household was employed.

To file a claim pursuant to the information above, complete this form and submit it to:

Pahokee Housing Authority, Inc.
465 Friend Terrace
Pahokee, Florida 33476

Full name of household member who was: Month/Year to Month/Year

1. Dependent wife or husband of head of household and/or;
2. Employed dependent of family

I affirm to the best of my knowledge that the foregoing is true and accurate.

If the PHA which you rented an apartment or house from during the claim period is other than that indicated above, you should delete the PHA's name and address indicated and submit your claim to the appropriate PHA.

PHA's will make the final decision as to the validity of any claim submitted. Payment of a valid claim shall be made through PHAs and may be credited by the PHAs against a tenant's or former tenant's back rent or other amount owed.
